AIA ENHANCED CANCER PROTECT

THRICE THE ASSURANCE WITH ONE CANCER PLAN

Cancer coverage that you can count on, from the first diagnosis to two relapses.

HEALTHIER, LONGER, BETTER LIVES

1 in 4 Singaporeans are likely to develop cancer in their lifetime[#]

Cancer treatment can cost up to S$16,700 a month[^]

Cancer can deal a hard blow to not just your health, but also your finances.

And if it comes back for round two, even a small lapse in planning can turn into a huge gap in protection.

That's why we've designed a plan that hits back even harder.

Your three move headstart against cancer what-ifs

Go the distance with AIA Enhanced Cancer Protect, your first line and last line of cancer defence.

From the first diagnosis to second relapse, it supports you with high coverage of up to S$700,000, relapse coverage, premiums that do not change yearly[1], and the confidence of knowing your family's future is secure.

Be protected again and again

Built to cover more, so you can worry less

When cancer strikes, the last thing you should have to worry about is whether you have enough protection to stay financially resilient. With up to S$700,000 coverage, you can focus on your recovery, while we take care of the rest.

Not a once-and-done plan

Should cancer return, we believe your protection should too. Get 100% of the coverage amount each time for not only the first diagnosis, but also up to two major stage relapses of major cancer, with each relapse claimable two years apart[2].

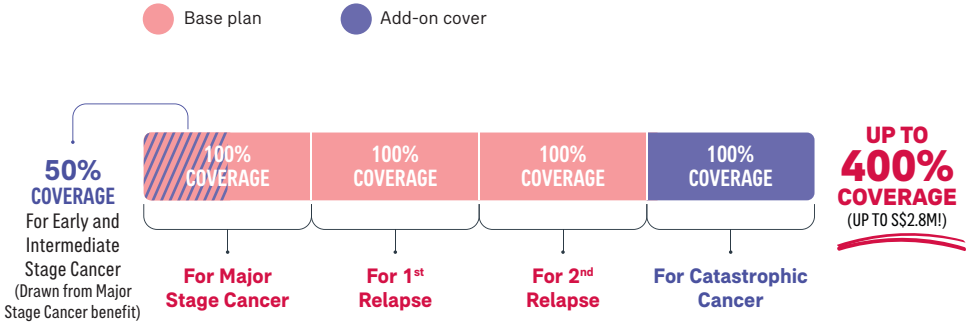

The smarter way to stay covered

Choose between a coverage period of 20 years, or till 65 years old. Whichever you prefer, you can plan ahead with clarity, knowing your premiums stay the same every year[1]. By starting early, you can pay lower premiums based on your current age for more affordable long-term protection.

One add-on cover for 360° protection

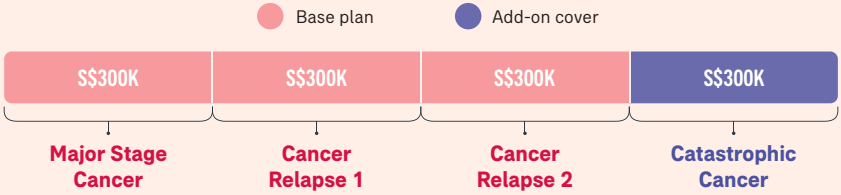

The optional Enhanced Cancer Protect Plus widens your safety net by including early, intermediate and catastrophic cancer coverage and increasing your total coverage up to 400%, so nothing ever catches you off guard.

Coverage that steps up at every stage

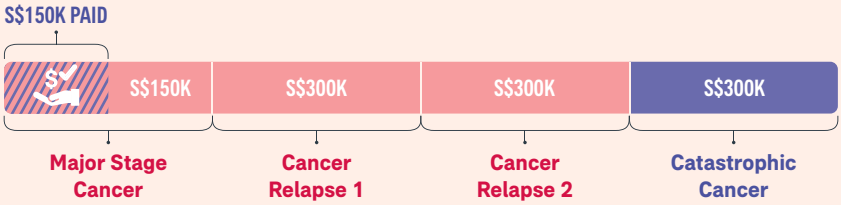

Rachel (30 years old) is married with 2 young children.
To close her protection gap, she signs up for AIA Enhanced Cancer Protect and adds on Enhanced Cancer Protect Plus for a coverage amount of S$300,000.

1 YEAR LATER

Rachel is diagnosed with early stage breast cancer. Her Enhanced Cancer Protect Plus add-on cover provides a S$150,000 payout (50% of her coverage amount).

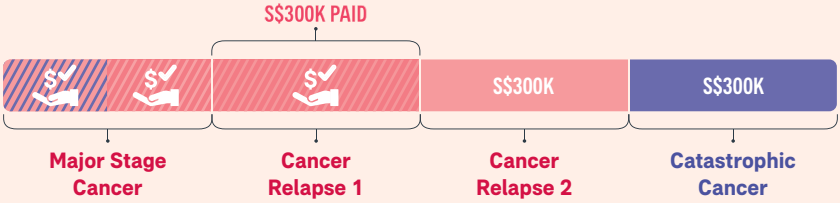

2 YEARS LATER

Unfortunately, Rachel is diagnosed with major stage breast cancer. She receives a payout of the remaining S$150,000 and her major stage cancer benefit terminates. She continues premium payments to maintain coverage for cancer relapses and catastrophic cancer.

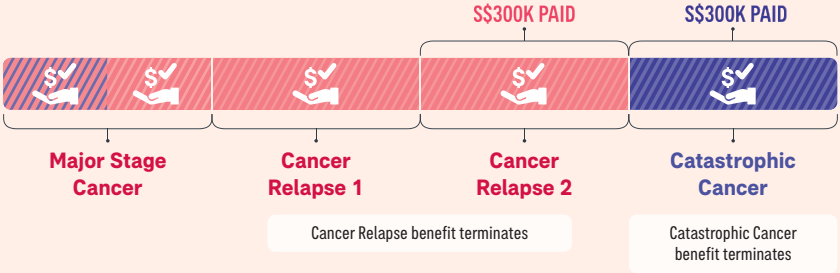

2 YEARS LATER

Rachel suffers a relapse of major stage breast cancer. She receives a payout of S$300,000 from her 1st cancer relapse benefit.

2 YEARS LATER

If Rachel is diagnosed with catastrophic cancer, she will receive S$300,000 from her catastrophic cancer benefit, as well as an additional S$300,000 from her 2nd cancer relapse benefit[2]. Her policy and add-on cover will then terminate.
