AIA

HEALTHIER, LONGER, BETTER LIVES

Maximise protection for your greatest asset — you.

You lead an accomplished lifestyle and are constantly on the move for business and leisure. While you're likely to have taken steps to insure your high-value assets, it's equally important to ensure that your standard of living will be well-maintained in the event of a mishap.

AIA Platinum AccidentCare is a personal accident plan that offers high coverage and round-the-clock protection for accidental deaths and injuries. So, whether you're on the road for a business summit in Asia or skiing on the slopes of Aspen, live every day with confidence knowing that you and your loved ones can continue with the lifestyle you've built, no matter what happens.

Greater coverage for more assurance

Top tier protection

AIA Platinum AccidentCare offers you a payout that is up to 150% coverage in the event of accidental death, dismemberment and burns. If you are injured due to an accident while overseas[1], we will reimburse the expenses incurred for the arrangement of an emergency medical evacuation by our service provider.

Taking your coverage skyward, we have also included double indemnity coverage. Should you unfortunately pass away due to an injury sustained on a flight, we will pay an additional amount equal to your coverage amount. Depending on your plan type, your lump sum payout can reach up to S$10 million.

Assistance for a swift recovery

We want to be there for you during your recovery journey after an accident. Besides your medical bills, if you require mobility aids[2] or need to modify your home[2,3] to increase your quality of life, we will reimburse such expenses.

We understand that due to your commitments, you need to restore your health quickly. We provide financial support so you can go for treatments that help you recover faster. You can make a claim for the expenses incurred when you seek rehabilitation support from a psychiatrist, physiotherapist, occupational therapist or speech therapist after a major disability.[3] Expenses incurred when undergoing treatment by a Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) practitioner or Chiropractor are also covered under this plan.

Beyond a personal accident plan

We have extended your coverage to safeguard against injuries or death caused by illnesses such as dengue fever and food poisoning. Indulge your passion for high-adrenaline recreational sports while knowing you are protected against any possible mishaps.

You have the flexibility to supplement your plan with optional income support benefits, allowing you to provide for your loved ones during your downtime.
